McNamara Sees Step Up in Viet Nam War

By ROY ESSOYAN

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert F. McNamara today predicted a stepup in the war against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam but warned again that it would be a long drawn out affair and "we should not delude ourselves on this score."

In a statement before leaving for Washington, he said marked progress had been made in implementing plans to increase substantially the strength and fire-power of the Vietnamese air force.

"I am confident if our plans are executed persistently they will lead to success," he said.

McNamara spoke briefly to newsmen before ending a crowded 30-hour visit in Saigon. His air force plane took off at 7:02 p.m. (6:02 a.m. EST) for Washington via Pearl Harbor.

McNamara's visit concluded with a conference with Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khang, strongman premier. They reviewed the general military, political and economic situation.

No important new recommendations on the war against the Communist Viet Cong were expected from McNamara's 30-hour visit, an aide to the secretary said.

McNamara followed up his last visit, two months ago, with wide-ranging recommendations for increased U.S. aid and more American combat advisers, if necessary.

This trip was described as mainly to update McNamara on progress made in the past two months.

What a Way to Lose Some Weight

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — "This is a helluva way to lose weight."

With these words, Joan Merriam of Long Beach, Calif., wrote the end to a chapter of aviation history that began 27 years ago when aviatrix Amelia Earhart disappeared in the Pacific in her attempt to be the first woman to circle the globe by air.

Miss Merriam, 27, landed safely at Oakland International Airport Tuesday after a trouble-plagued 27,750-mile solo flight that traced most of the original route chartered by Miss Earhart in 1927.

The mechanical difficulties that troubled her twin-engine plane throughout the globe-circling flight remained to endanger her until she landed at 9:12 a.m.

One of her engines began running rough while she was still 250 miles off the California coast and she required a Coast Guard plane escort into Oakland.

"I thought I'd never see Oakland again," she laughed as she stepped down from her plane to the congratulations of some 400 people.

The weary but smiling Miss Merriam had this advice for anyone considering duplicating her feat: "Buy a ticket!"

No Flood But River Rising

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau has recorded a rise on the White River, but says no flood conditions are expected.

The stage at Batesville today was 15 feet, up half a foot, and the bureau said the river may crest at 16 to 17 feet at Newport Thursday. Flood stage at Newport is 26 feet.

The stage may reach 25 or 26 feet at Augusta, where the flood stage is 32, by Friday.

The bureau said the river should crest late Thursday at Newport with a total rise of no more than five or six feet.

School Hears Message From President

Installation services were held Tuesday for student council members at Hope High with Judge John L. Wilson as speaker. Previously Judge Wilson mentioned the fact that he was to talk to students to Congressmen Oren Harris.

Two telegrams were read at the installation services. One from Mr. Harris and the other as follows:

"The President was pleased to learn from our mutual friend Congressman Oren Harris that you are addressing the students of Hope High on participation of young people. Today there are more than twice as many Americans under 25 than our total population 100 years ago.

"America needs the most able and dedicated leadership and the President hopes that the young men and women of Hope High School will make every effort to train themselves to provide the leadership that will be needed in times even more challenging than today."

This telegram to Judge Wilson and read to the class was signed by Lawrence F. O'Brien, Special Assistant of the President of the United States.

This Is a Story About Two Lovely Blondes — One Is a Real Lady, the Other a Scamp

By WICK TEMPLE
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — This is a story of two blondes — a lady and a scamp.

Both are blue-eyed, lovely and affectionate.

Both are mine.

Ellen is a 4, Carol, 3. They have similar gentle facial features, and the same last name. But there the resemblance ends.

Ellen is a lady—soft, discreet, feminine. Carol is tough as a tomcat, loud, funny.

The competition between them is furious. Ellen has taken charge of placing on a chair at night the clothes both shall wear the next morning. Carol always disagrees.

Ellen dresses herself early, then tries to dress Carol, who would rather remain in unbuttoned pajamas.

Ellen tries to brush both heads of hair. Carol likes hers matted.

But the big difference is in how they handle their most precious commodity—candy. Carol wolfs it. Ellen is a saver. She saves every piece until after her sister has finished. Then she enjoys it desperately.

Last month, Ellen launched the Big Tea Party Campaign. The idea was to save every piece of candy until she has enough to hold a tea party for the children in the neighborhood.

She began squirreling her candy in a medium-sized bag atop a cabinet. She saved zealously, denying herself and smiling while Carol ate her candy, then licked her fingers for emphasis.

After two weeks Ellen had enough for a small tea party. The arrangements were made. Ellen was beside herself with pride.

Then the carefully guarded bag disappeared. Ellen ran from the house, wisely seeking her sister. She found a trail of candy wrappers and happy munching devouring lollipops and gum drops.

At the end of the trail was Carol, with the empty bag. It was difficult to spank Carol. After all, she was only doing with the candy what was intended. But her sister was heart-broken. The tears flowed.

A large bag of candy brought from the store consoled her, and that was when Ellen proved she is a lady.

She dumped the new treasure into a shopping bag. The candy barely covered the bottom of the giant sack.

"What about the tea party?" I asked.

"When I get the sack full," she said.

NATO Takes Up Problems in Secret Session

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization took up in a secret session today the demands of France for a stronger role in the alliance's affairs.

Emerging from a three-hour session, Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder of West Germany would say only that he thought the meeting had a "cleansing effect" on NATO's structural problems.

This was an apparent reference to differences between France and Paul Henri Spaak, outspoken foreign minister of Belgium, over the role NATO should play in the years to come.

Before the ministers went into session, Spaak declared he would ask the French "to spell out just what you think is wrong with NATO — and how it should be righted. Otherwise, quit rocking the boat."

France wants the NATO structure loosened to give members a stronger voice in policy, and to cut down the dominant U.S. role. Other members believe the NATO structure should be tightened.

The only decision announced after the morning session was the appointment of Manlio Brosio, veteran Italian diplomat, to be NATO secretary-general to guide the alliance through the difficult period of reorganization.

Brosio on Aug. 1 will succeed Dirk U. Stikker of the Netherlands, who is stepping down because of ill health.

As the ministers emerged from the Juliana Barracks meeting hall, nearly a thousand women from NATO countries silently paraded in the neighborhood under a steady spring rain to protest the nuclear arms race.

A delegation of 15 women, each carrying a paper daisy with the word "peace" in various languages, passed through police lines and presented a petition to NATO officials. It called for general and controlled disarmament and assailed any spread of nuclear weapons.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk averted a public clash between Spaak and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville Tuesday at the opening of the ministers' annual spring meeting.

Rusk stopped in Brussels en route to The Hague and reportedly persuaded Spaak to lay aside a speech attacking Gaullism and it means for the alliance.

Today the 15 ministers met with only two aides present for each of them. The aim was to limit the risk that divisive exchanges would be leaked.

Hanging over the alliance are such basic questions as:

Rector Ends His Hunger Strike

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Rev. Clayton K. Hewett, a white Episcopalian rector, has ended an 18-day hunger strike.

The Right Rev. Robert L. De Witt, bishop of the Pennsylvania Episcopal diocese, announced the end of the fast shortly after the Rev. Mr. Hewett, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Atonement in suburban Morton, was discharged from a hospital.

The bishop told newsmen the 37-year-old rector had agreed to end the fast because Gov. William W. Scranton's intervention has been responsible for the apparent beginning of real progress in the racial situation at Chester. The bishop wants the Rev. Mr. Hewett to have training to prepare him for additional ministry in civil rights work.

The Rev. Mr. Hewett had been taking only water, juices and vitamin capsules since his arrest in the April 24 demonstrations in Chester.

Start Worry When Things Going Good

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The more everyone is assured that everything's wonderful, the more some people start worrying about what might happen.

Stock price averages make new highs every little while. So the slightest temporary bubble in the upward line tends to exaggerate fears that a downturn is at hand. Or the very trend of the market itself makes some fear that a speculative boom could be set off, leading to another crash.

Employment increases and so does the total of personal incomes. And that general feeling of well-being generates fears that new wage demands may trigger another wage-price spiral. In a time of little inflation, preachers are heard more and more often warning of the danger that future inflation could do great damage to the economy and hurt more people than it would seem to help.

Profits are well above a year ago. And even profit margins are gaining a little after a long drop. And that sets off warnings lest business be inspired to make the most of a good thing and raise prices—and thus chill consumer buying desires at home and trading opportunities abroad.

Business is announcing plans to spend a lot more for new plants and equipment. But along with the rejoicing at the stimulus this will give to economic growth, the fear grows that shortly the nation will be plagued once more with a glut of idle industrial capacity. A variation is worry lest the increased production facilities will make competition so keen that some of the new plants will falter, while older ones will be forced to close.

It all seems to shake down to this:

Few can find much in the present state of the economy to worry about. It's near a record height in most of its components. It has few excesses currently visible that might assure future doom. It has problems, like unemployment and poverty and labor-management quarrels over automation. But as a general proposition today's economy is unusually healthy.

And that's where two lines of thought split off. One holds that the economy still isn't healthy enough—because the problems aren't solved—and that it must be stimulated further. The other holds that everything is so good, perched on so high a pinnacle, that the history of business cycles points to a time when dangers will arise and the economy's very exuberance will bring on reaction.

Leaders Hope to Crack Rights Bill Stalemate

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders and top Justice Department officials planned to take a final look today at a package of amendments designed to break the civil rights bill stalemate.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in advance of the conference that he was hopeful the proposed changes would lead to action on the House-passed bill.

The key question is whether they will win broad enough support to produce the required two-thirds majority—67 votes if all 100 senators vote—to clasp a time limit on the debate, now in its 54th day.

The amendments were worked out in conferences last week with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and his aides. Dirksen said full accord had been reached, except for the exact language.

The principal amendments would revise the sections banning discrimination by employment.

Good Income Tax Year for State

By JOHN R. STARR

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — It looks like another good income tax year for the state.

Deadline for filing the state income tax return and for paying at least half of the tax due is midnight Friday.

Roby Bearden, director of the Income Tax Division of the State Revenue Department said returns are being filed in greater volume than ever before.

Total payments were $24,927,000 last year, an increase of about $2 million over the previous year, Bearden said. "It wouldn't surprise me if we match that gain again this year," he added.

Income tax collection has been on a steadily and rapidly rising trend since 1957 when the payment formula was changed with the effect of increasing the tax for most taxpayers.

The change also made many additional persons liable for paying income tax and new taxpayers have been added to the rolls at the rate of about 30,000 a year.

The return will be counted as having met the deadline if it is postmarked before midnight Friday.

And Bearden warned taxpayers to be sure and include a check with their return because under Arkansas law the return is delinquent unless the check is received by the deadline.

There is a five per cent penalty for late returns. The penalty can go up to 25 per cent if the taxpayer doesn't meet the filing requirements quickly and voluntarily after the deadline.

Through April 8, Bearden said, collections are up about $800,000 over last year at a total of $6,813,000. He took this as an indication that many taxpayers are filing earlier.

Extra Time for Wheat Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP)

The Agriculture Department has given wheat farmers an additional week in which to sign up for participation in the new wheat program.

Originally, the sign-up period was set for May 1 to May 15. The closing date has been set at May 22. Officials said that many county offices would not be able to handle all registrants within the original period.

Those who sign up for harvesting wheat within their acreage allotments will get price supports, marketing certificates worth 47.5 cents a bushel on 90 per cent of their normal production of wheat and land diversion payments.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts clear to partly cloudy weather through Thursday with overnight low temperatures in the 50s.

No rain is expected until the first of next week since a wind shift moved the source of Gulf moisture.

Lucky He Didn't Have a Dime

MACON, Ga., (AP) — Spectators told this story of a man who was lucky he didn't have a dime.

The man drove up to a telephone booth outside a truck stop here Tuesday, but found he didn't have 10 cents for his call.

He went in for change and just as he stepped outside again, a large tractor-trailer rig smashed into the corner of the truck stop, demolishing the telephone booth.

Officers arrested a young honeymooning couple from Tulsa, Okla., in connection with the slayings of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Bybee of Hutchinson, Kan. The Bybees were slain a few minutes after they checked in for a convention of the Missouri Real Estate Association.

Held for investigation were John R. Abercrombie, 22-year-old salesman, and his bride, Catherine, 23.

Deputy Sheriff Lynn Sorrell stopped them about 15 minutes after the shooting and less than a mile away because their car matched the description of one which sped from the motel after the shots.

Sheriff E. L. Libby reported a .38 revolver was found in the Abercrombie car and that it contained five discharged cartridges and a misfire.

"We have a gun which matches the caliber of the bullets which were taken from the bodies and we are waiting for ballistic tests to see if they were fired from this gun," said Libby.

Bill Bowman, operator of the El Dorado Motor Lodge, said the Bybees had just checked in when another car pulled up behind theirs, apparently waited for them to come out of the office and followed them to their room.

He said he heard shots a few minutes later and ran out to find Bybee dead and Mrs. Bybee dying beside their car at the rear of the lodge.

McNamara Goes to More Conferences

By ROY ESSOYAN

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara arrived in Saigon today for a 36-hour visit and plunged into a series of heavily guarded conferences on the progress of the war in Viet Nam.

McNamara raced from one conference to another in Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's car, with flak jackets piled on the floor, on the seat and behind his back for protection against Communist terrorist bullets, hand grenades and mines.

He was accompanied everywhere by a motorcade of vehicles bristling with police and a truck loaded with black-bereted Special Forces soldiers, their guns at the ready.

U.S. and Vietnamese security were taking no chances since discovery of a plot on McNamara's life. Viet Cong agents were caught Saturday night trying to mine a bridge the secretary was to cross.

McNamara on his arrival conferred for two hours with Lodge. Then, after a quick lunch at Lodge's residence, he began a series of conferences with top U.S. military officials.

Here for his fifth visit since the U.S. military buildup in South Viet Nam began more than two years ago, McNamara promised the United States will provide "whatever is required" for however long it is required.

"During my brief stay here this time, we will review the progress achieved along the lines of the program laid out last March," he said as he arrived by plane from Bonn, Germany.

Air Force police checked all arrivals before McNamara landed and inspected the VIP room where he stopped after getting off his plane.

Police reported that one of the three Viet Cong arrested for the plot leaped from a second-floor window at police headquarters Monday. The suspect, Nguyen Van Troi, landed on a Jeep, broke his leg and was taken unconscious to a hospital.

Witnesses Say Accused Man Insane

WHARTON, Tex. (AP) — Three witnesses told a jury in Dist. Judge Thurman Gupion's court Monday the considered Leslie Douglas Ashley, in sane and incapable of being tried for murder.

The three were a clinical psychologist, a psychiatrist and a lawyer.

Dr. Jack Tracktir of Houston, Dr. Alfred P. Bolch of the Houston State Psychiatric Institute at Baylor University and attorney Clyde Wood were called to the stand as part of the effort of Ashley's lawyers to prove he was mentally ill at the time of the Feb. 6, 1961, gun-torch murder of Houston realtor Fred Tones, and still is.

Harris County Dist. Atty. Frank Briscoe and others handling the state's case planned to call other witnesses in a counter move to prove Ashley, formerly of Hot Springs, Ark., mentally competent of going to trial for the Tones murder.

Woody is the attorney for Carolyn Ann Lima, 21, who was given five years for the Tones slaying after being retired in February.

The one-time prostitute is expected to be a key witness during the Ashley sanity hearing by his attorneys, Lloyd Lunsford of Houston and Ed Liptman of

"DEAR ABBY"

NOW CALM DOWN!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: A letter came for my husband. The few words I could see through the envelope raised my suspicions, so when he came home I made him open it in front of me and read it out loud. Abby, I almost died. It was a love letter from a married woman my husband had been carrying on with out of town. He travels. She told him how much she missed him and loved him. It was disgusting. She mentioned her two children. I locked my husband in the basement and called her up long distance. I told her what I thought of her and the whole cheap affair. I also told her I was going to call her husband and tell him about it. She cried and begged, saying if I did, they would take her children away from her. Now I am uncertain. Do you think this little tramp deserves a second chance?

PLENTY MAD
Dear Plenty: Everybody deserves a second chance. One good scare is sometimes worth a month of Sundays in Church.

Dear Abby: I am fed up hearing people say that all the money I spent on my college education was "wasted" because ALL I did was get married. I earned a B.A. degree, and then my Master's and I have a teaching certificate. Please say something in your column about the importance of education to women.

EDUCATED AND GLAD OF IT
Dear Educated: A college education is the best insurance a woman can have in case something should happen to her husband. Should he become unable to work, his wife will be faced with the task of supporting the family. She will do much better for having had a college education. And what do people mean, "all" you did was get married? Marriage is the greatest challenge of all.

Dear Abby: When I have company and I get a telephone call from a friend who wants to pass

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

PROBE: The chiefs of the FBI and Central Intelligence Agency testify Thursday before the Warren Commission investigating John F. Kennedy's assassination.

The commission announced that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover will be heard in the morning, followed by CIA Director John A. McCone.

Presumably both will be asked, among other things, about their organizations' investigations here and abroad after the president was shot in Dallas Nov. 22 and Lee Harvey Oswald, who once embraced Marxism and tried life in the Soviet Union for a while, was accused of being the sniper.

Today the commission hears from two officers of the Dallas police department's criminal intelligence division—Lt. Jack Reville, the division's superintendent, and detective V. J. Brian.

DRAFT: Selective Service Director Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey has told Congress why he doesn't favor induction of married men.

They have too many outside distractions, Hershey told the House Appropriations Committee in testimony released Tuesday.

Also, he said: "A married man in the grade of private is more expensive than a non-commissioned officer who is single. One of the most expensive is a man with dependents. The trouble you have all the and tell them I can't go. I wouldn't mind so much if my mother told me I couldn't go in the first place. Do you think this is fair to me and my friends?

EMBARRASSED: No! Parents should realize that their children learn more from example than preaching. Your mother could do a better job of teaching you how to keep your word by keeping hers. And delayed punishments are unjust.

Get it off your chest. For a personal unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

time with people in the service is with those who have dependents."

Hershey said it was his recommendation that led President Johnson to halt drafting of married men. Had this brought on a marriage rush among draft-age men? Hershey said he had no figures but, anyway, he said it was debatable whether "the fellow who ran into matrimony to get away from getting in might run away from everybody else after he got in."

MANUFACTURERS: President Johnson has asked officials of the National Association of Manufacturers to support his "war on poverty."

The NAM officers met for 30 minutes with Johnson Tuesday and NAM President W. P. Gullander described it as a "very good meeting" in which Johnson did most of the talking.

He asked industry's help in the job-training phase of the anti-poverty campaign, and the NAM officers assured him that corporations are already doing more in that field than generally realized.

Changed Business

Responding to major population shifts in the United States after 1925, large mail order companies established hundreds of retail stores throughout the country and, by midcentury, retail sales exceeded those of mail order divisions, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

McNally Joins Elite Shut Out Group

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Are the Chuckin's Chicks—Dave McNally and Wally Bunker—ready to replace the Kiddie Korps as the meat of Baltimore's pitching staff?

McNally, at 21 the senior member of the Orioles' fledgling fireballers, joined Bunker in the shutout circle Tuesday night by limiting Washington to two hits in a 5-0 Baltimore victory.

It was McNally's third victory against a single loss and his first shutout since he made his major league debut with a two-hit job, Sept. 26, 1962. Bunker made his big league bow a week ago and pitched a one-hit shutout.

McNally, a left-hander, and Bunker, a 19-year-old right-hander, now have accounted for five of the Orioles' 14 victories while the three remaining members of the Kiddie Korps—Steve Barber, Chuck Estrada and Milt Pappas—have one victory among them.

It was McNally's third victory against a single loss and his first shutout since he made his major league debut with a two-hit job, Sept. 26, 1962. Bunker made his big league bow a week ago and pitched a one-hit shutout.

In other sharp pitching performances, Detroit's Mickey Lolich three-hit the New York Yankees for a 7-2 victory, Jim Kaat allowed only four hits while his Minnesota mates pounded 15 in an 11-1 walloping of the Chicago White Sox and John O'Donoghue and John Wyatt collaborated on a two-hitter as Kansas City defeated the Los Angeles Angels 6-2.

Cleveland edged Boston 6-5 in the other game on the full American League program.

In National League action, San Francisco shut out Houston 6-0 as Willie Mays hit his 12th and 13th homers, Chicago's Cubs nipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-2, St. Louis defeated Philadelphia 4-2, Milwaukee blanked the New York Mets 2-0 and Pittsburgh downed Cincinnati 3-2.

The Orioles used two of their five stolen bases to advantage in a two-run first against Senators starter Dave Stenhouse before Boog Powell took care of the rest of the scoring with a three-run homer in the third.

Luis Aparicio stole three bases and Willie Kirkland two. Each pilfered second base in the first inning and wound up scoring.

Lolich, now 3-1, gave up a two-run homer to Hector Lopez in the first inning, then set the Yankees down without difficulty, snapping New York's five-game winning streak and ending the Tigers' five-game losing string.

Willie Horton drove in two runs for Detroit with a pair of triples and Don Wert collected three hits, including a two-run double as the Tigers moved ahead to stay in the second inning.

Kaat, 3-1, did not allow the White Sox a hit after the third inning and retired 13 men in order at one stretch. Dave Nicholson's second-inning home run accounted for the Chicago run.

The Twins' offense included Jimmie Hall's ninth homer and four hits each by Don Mincher and Zoilo Versalles. Mincher, playing first with Harmon Killebrew benched, hit his fifth home run and collected three singles. Versalles drove in three runs with two doubles and two singles.

O'Donoghue weathered four A's errors—three by Wayne Causey—but needed Wyatt's relief help in the eighth inning. Wyatt finished up without allowing the Angels a hit.

The Indians blew a 4-0 lead, tied it 5-5 on Woodie Held's homer in the sixth, then moved ahead to stay in the eighth on Larry Brown's sacrifice fly while the bases loaded off ace Red Sox reliever Dick Radatz.

Grand Slams Help Travs Keep Ahead

The Padres bobbled five chances afled, but still downed San Diego 11-8 in a series opener.

The Padres bobbled to a 6-0 lead after 4½ innings, but Bob Lipiski's two-run homer closed the gap to four runs in the last half of the fifth inning.

Torrid Giant Twosome Licks Houston Colts

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Will Willie Mays hit 400? Well, if Juan Marichal wins 30 games, the Say Hey Kid is liable to bat .500.

The San Francisco Giants' torrid twosome continued to ravage the National League Tuesday night, punishing the Houston Colts 6-0.

Mays ran his average to an astronomical .478 with his 12th and 13th homers and a single in five trips. Marichal won his sixth game and trimmed his earned-run average to 1.73 with his second straight shutout.

The Giants' "M" boys are murder by themselves but when thrown against the opposition in combination it's tantamount to a nuclear holocaust.

As for Marichal, the veteran right-hander who won 25 games last year, is 12 days ahead of the pace he set in 1963 when he didn't win his sixth game until May 24. And the season started a week later this year.

For the record the last .400 hitter was Ted Williams in 1941 with .406. The last 30-game winner was Dizzy Dean in 1934 with .307. Modern baseball has never had a .400 hitter and 30-game winner on the same club.

In other NL games Tuesday, Milwaukee blanked New York 2-0 behind Hank Fischer's three-hitter; Pittsburgh nipped Cincinnati 3-2 in a four-hour, rain-interrupted marathon; St. Louis topped Philadelphia 4-2 behind Curt Simmons and Chicago nipped Los Angeles 3-2 on Dick Tracewski's ninth inning error.

In American League action, Minnesota routed Chicago 11-1; Baltimore blanked Washington 5-0; Cleveland edged Boston 6-5; Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak and a five-game New York win skein 7-2 and Kansas City whipped Los Angeles 6-2.

Mays' three hits drove in four runs and extended his batting streak to 19 games. After flying out in the first he battered Houston starter Skinny Brown for a solo homer in the third and a two-run shot in the fifth. His seventh inning single also drove in a run.

Marichal allowed just five hits and retired 14 in a row over one stretch while winning his 12th straight over a two-season stretch.

Milwaukee's Fischer faced just 29 batters and got all the runs he needed when rookie Rico Cartly crashed his first major league homer against Met starter Alvin Jackson.

Cincinnati's Jim Maloney pitched four perfect innings before rain interrupted the Pirates-Red game at Pittsburgh. After a 1½-hour wait, play was resumed, and Maloney quickly lost his no-hitter and shutout when Smokey Burgess singled and ex-Red Gene Freese homered to tie it 2-2.

After another 28 minute delay, the Pirates won it without a hit in the eighth on an error a fielder's choice and two walks off Maloney.

Curt Simmons beat the Phillies for the 13th time in 15 decisions since they released him four years ago but needed eighth-inning help from Roger Craig to do it.

Leading 4-1, Simmons gave up a single to Tony Gonzalez and Danny Cater with one out in the eighth. Craig came on and after Gus Triandos' double delivered one run, the lanky Cardinal retired the side and blanked the Phils in the ninth to save it.

Tracewski fumbled pinch hitter Joey Amalfitano's grounder with two out and the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth to give Chicago its victory over the stumbling Dodgers.

Griffith Not Worried by a Knock Out

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — When a champion is knocked out, the defeat usually haunts him the rest of his life. Emile Griffith claims to be the exception to the rule.

In Griffith's case, the knockout came in a non-title match with Rubin Carter last Dec. 20, so the pain was easier to take. Now that he is getting ready to defend his welterweight crown against Luis Rodriguez, an ex-champ, at Las Vegas June 12, he thinks the knockout will help him.

"The Carter fight did wonders for me," said Emile at the downtown gymnasium where he is training until he leaves for the West May 25. "Two of the guys I have fought since the knockout tried to take me out, too. I got lucky and knocked out both of them. They try to slug it out with me instead of run and hide."

"Maybe that knockout will make Rodriguez do a little more fighting and little less running. I hope so. Maybe he will have more confidence. I read in a magazine where he said he was sorry for me everytime he hit the punching bag. That's fine. I don't care if he hits me, I'll hit him right back only harder. He is the best fighter I have fought, a very good boxer."

Griffith just started boxing Monday but he has been in the gym, working on the heavy bag and shadow-boxing for more than a week. He has had three bouts this year, but this will be his first defense since he re-

'Big Pete' Considered Outsider

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP)—Big Pete will be the outsider Saturday when six 3-year-old horses take off for a 1.3-mile trip around history-steeped Pimlico in the 88th running of the $150,000-added Preakness. That's for certain.

But the star of Mrs. Harriet N. Ball's Stable of Falls Church, Va., who has the blood of classy sprinters flowing through his solidly built frame, probably will play an important role before the garland of black-eyed susans is thrown over the winner and the imposing woodlawn vase is presented to the winning owner.

Until trainer Bernie Bond announced Tuesday that he definitely would be on hand Thursday morning to pay the $1,000 entry fee on Big Pete, there was some question whether the horses would walk or run the first part of the journey. No trainer wanted to commit his horse to making the early pace and setting up another possible stretch duel between Kentucky Derby winner Northern Dancer and runner-up Hill Rose.

Bond declined today to say whether the son of Degage-Judiciously would set the early pace. Not only his breeding but his 10 races, of which he has won seven, indicate that Big Pete runs best at getting out in front and hanging on as long as possible.

As a 2-year-old he won three stakes and in all except one they were front-running victories. He also was close to the early pace before taking the recent Delaware Valley Stakes at Garden State Park in the fast time of 1:10 1-5 for six furlongs.

Bond himself doesn't favor racing Big Pete against the Derby's first five finishers — Northern Dancer, Hill Rise, The Scoundrel, Roman Brother and Quadrangle—but said he was acting on instructions of the colt's owner. Big Pete was taken out of the Keeneland yearling sales for $13,000.

With Joe Culmone barging along in front on Big Pete, you can be sure that Willie Shoemaker and Bill Hartack will have to keep their eyes on horses other than their own. Shoemaker rides Hill Rise and Hartack pilots Northern Dancer.

In the Derby, Northern Dancer broke through a hole at the five-eighths pole and bounded into a lead before Shoemaker could get Hill Rise's long legs churning in pursuit.

Despite the Dancer's neck victory in the Derby, the Pimlico program selector has made Hill Rise the 7-5 choice with Northern Dancer the second choice at 2-1. That was the way they were rated in the Derby. The Scoundrel was quoted at 4-1 today, Roman Brother and Quadrangle at 8-1 and Big Pete at 20-1.
